

NUPENG APPOINTS COMRADE ADAMU SONG AS GENERAL SECRETARY

The Nigeria Union of Petroleum & Natural Gas Workers (NUPENG) has appointed Comrade Adamu Song as its new General Secretary, following the retirement of Comrade Joseph Ogbemor, the erstwhile General Secretary.

Comrade Adamu Song is a seasoned labour technocrat who until now was the former Deputy General Secretary (Operations and Administration). He was also a former Senior Assistant General Secretary in-charge of Kaduna Zone before he was moved to Lagos five years ago. He will bring his wealth of experience to bear in moving the union to the next level.

The former General Secretary, Comrade Joseph Ogbemor retired after 31 years of meritorious service to the union.

Also, Comrade Afolabi Olawale was appointed Deputy General Secretary (Operations). He was until now, Senior Assistant General Secretary/Head of Warri zone. Other appointments are Comrades Anthony Chukwu, Otite Precious Onohwohwo, Adamson Momoh, Christopher Akpede were promoted to the position of principal Assistant General Secretaries.

Adamson Momoh

PAGS (Research & Public Affairs)